HOT WATER -

Lloyd enroute to church to act as best man for his friend meets Joblyna . They fall in love and marry. Installed in a cute little home they are very happy until her mother, big brother and little brother come to pay them a visit. On his way home from his office Lloyd stops to do the marketing for the bride and wins a turkey in a raffle.

It is almost impossible to bring the turkey and the large number of bundles home but Lloyd manages to make it after many trials . On the street car the bird gets away and crawls under a seat and in trying to recover it Lloyd annoys a lady and is thrown off the car. He arrives home to discover that he has visitors in the form of his wife's family. Shortly after his arrival home an automobile he has purchased as a surprise gift for his wife arrives and he takes the family out for a ride.

The trip proves a hectic one and they are finally ~~knocked~~ towed home in a wrecked condition.

The mother-in-law is a sleep walker and is also a strong advocate against drink. Lloyd tells his troubles to a neighbor who gives him a swig from his bottle and. Harold reports for dinner in a dazed condition which is readily recognized by the mother-in-law. In self defense Lloyd chloroforms her at the dinner table .

Later he believes he has killed his mother-in-law and is in a state of terror . He meets her walking in her sleep and imagines it is her ghost.
